

Leading Through Today's Fire Service Challenges

Instructor: Dave Denniston

Today's fire service leaders face challenges that go far beyond emergency response, including governance, risk management, staffing, compliance, and organizational culture.

This program equips fire commissioners, chiefs, and officers with practical strategies to strengthen leadership, improve performance, reduce liability, and prepare their organizations for the future. Participants will leave with actionable tools they can apply immediately.

Ideal for: Fire Commissioners, Chief Officers, Department Officers, and emerging leaders.
