Responsibilities:

Direct Instruction & Program Leadership

Develop and sustain external partnerships with regional arts, cultural, and education organizations to co-create programs, host events, and expand access to high-quality arts and character experiences for campers, staff, and the broader community

Plan and lead arts and character classes, workshops, and experiential learning sessions for campers and participant

Serve as a lead facilitator for pilot programs, camp-wide arts initiatives, murals, ensemble performances, reflection circles, and camper-led workshops

Model high-quality facilitation, inclusive teaching practices, and effective group management during live programs

Support the implementation of Frost Valley YMCAs Strategic Plan by aligning Arts & Character programming, partnerships, and staff training efforts with organizational goals and long-term priorities

Train seasonal and year-round staff to confidently lead arts and character activities through workshops, demonstrations, and side-by-side coaching

Build and support a network of adjunct staff and volunteers to enhance arts-based program quality and creativity

Teach staff how to facilitate fine arts projects, nature-based creative experiences, and character discussions
Develop and deliver staff training modules focused on lesson structure, facilitation skills, reflection practices, and character integration
Develop and refine written Arts & Character curriculum
Create clear lesson plans, facilitation guides, and reflection prompts to support staff success
Collaborate with program leaders to schedule, support, and scale arts and character programming across Frost Valley
Collect and analyze feedback from campers, families, and staff using observation tools, reflection journals, and surveys
Contribute to end-of-season reviews, program summaries, and impact documentation
Lead or co-lead family showcases, exhibitions, and celebrations of camper work
Participate in community-facing workshops and events as appropriate
Perform other duties as assigned
